THIS ACTIVITY IS JOINTLY SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF OBSTETRICIANS & GYNECOLOGISTS

Welcome to the 2009 Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Ob/Gyn Society and the North Carolina Section of ACOG. This meeting is designed for the obstetrician/gynecologist and will have an impact on current evaluation and treatment options for the practicing clinician.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the evaluation and management of benign adnexal masses of gynecologic origin.
- Discuss the evaluation and current management of women with infertility secondary to anovulation and polycystic ovarian syndrome.
- Demonstrate knowledge and indications for various contraceptive methods including implantable contraceptives.
- Demonstrate knowledge of current thoughts on personal asset protection.
- Apply maintenance of certification guidelines in Obstetrics and Gynecology to comply with current requirements.
- Demonstrate knowledge of candidates for bariatric surgery and recommendations, risks and follow-up.
- Discuss the evaluation and management of nonsurgical treatment of uterine fibroids using embolization and focused ultrasound.
- Apply current guidelines and recommendations for adult pertussis immunization.
- Discuss the recommendations for thrombophilia evaluation and treatment during pregnancy.
- Apply knowledge of counseling of first trimester screening for aneuploidy.
- Demonstrate knowledge of laparoscopic management of severe endometriosis.
- Apply knowledge of strategies for the prevention of preterm birth and subsequent morbidities, particularly late preterm birth.

ACCMC Accreditation

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCMC) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)<sup>SM</sup>/ACOG Cognate Credit(s)
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) designates this educational activity for a maximum of 14.0 AMA PRA Category 1 credits<sup>SM</sup>, or up to a maximum of 14.0 Category 1 ACOG Cognate Credits. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure

In accordance with ACOG policy, all faculty members have signed a conflict of interest statement in which they have disclosed any significant financial interests or other relationships with industry relative to topics they will discuss at this program. At the beginning of the program, faculty members are expected to disclose any such information to participants. Such disclosure allows you to evaluate better the objectivity of the information presented in lectures. Please report on your evaluation form any undisclosed conflict of interest you perceive. Thank you.

The Honorable Michael Burgess
U.S. House of Representatives
229 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct hereby approves your proposed trip to Asheville, North Carolina scheduled for April 25 to 26, 2009 sponsored by the North Carolina Obstetrical and Gynecological Society. We note that you will be paying for your round-trip airfare from your own principal campaign committee funds.

You must complete a Member Travel Disclosure Form and file it with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form (including attachments) and Member travel approval form you previously submitted to the Committee. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $335 from a single source on Schedule VII of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Zoe Lofgren
Chair

Jo Bonner
