- 6:00-7:45pm Dinner
 Opening Prayer
 Welcome
 Introductions of Key People
 Overview of Faith & Law and retreat, goals for the weekend, F & L past, present, future: Mark Rodgers
 Introductions of All Guests
- 8:00-9:30 pm Evening Session
 Speaker: Steve Garber, The Washington Institute
 Topic: Public Policy as Vocation I:
 Making Peace with Proximate Justice
- The goal of public policy is to pursue justice and promote the common good. However, rarely is the final product of policy deliberation exactly the ideal in a policy-makers mind. In his first talk, Dr. Garber will discuss the process by which one determines when compromise is necessary or permissible, or when it violates conviction or principle.*
- 9:30-11:00 pm Cultural Presentation:
 Documentary: Lines That Divide:
 The Great Stem Cell Debate
 Speakers: Brian Godawa, film's director
 Elaine Petty, Endowment
 for Community Leadership

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

7:30-8:45am

Breakfast

9:00 a.m.

Morning Session I

Speaker: Steve Garber, The Washington Institute

Topic: Public Policy as Vocation II:
Progresses, Not Progress

In his second talk, Dr. Garber will discuss incrementalism, and the nature of multi-dimensional avenues of engagement to advance concerns also being addressed through public policy. He will lead discussion regarding the complex nature of public policy "prescriptions," especially in light of the complexity of the globally and technologically "growing" world in which policy makers craft their proposals.

10:30 a.m.

Break

10:45 a.m.–12:15p.m.

Morning Session II

Speaker: Brian Godawa, Filmmaker

Topic: How to Change the World through Story:
Incarnation, Culture and Public Policy

In his first presentation, Mr. Godawa will discuss the general thesis that worldviews, embodied in cultural entertainment products, convey and shape the general public's understanding of issues through the incarnational nature of narrative. Mr. Godawa will present examples of film, documentaries and other "narrative" forms of information that have educated the public on issues that are also addressed through public policy, from homelessness to environmental policy.

12:30-1:45 p.m.

Family Lunch

2:00-3:30 p.m.

Afternoon Session I

Speaker: Brian Godawa, Filmmaker

Topic: How to Change the World Through Story II:
Subversion, Culture and Public Policy

In his second presentation, Mr. Godawa will discuss the process of creating story as a means of changing the public's understanding of policy-related issues through the subversive power of narrative. He will present more examples of "narrative" forms that have educated the public on issues of public policy. He will lead discussion regarding the practical opportunities within contemporary culture and "conversation" to apply narrative to the issues we face.

4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Afternoon Session II

Speaker: Dr. Paul Julianne, Fellow

National Institute of Standards and Technology

Topic: Science and Faith in the 21st Century:

In Ptolemy's Shadow

The natural sciences play a central role in forming the basic concepts and worldviews that are brought to bear on numerous issues that arise in public discourse and public policy. The first talk will characterize the character of scientific knowledge, its successes and limitations, from the perspective of practicing scientists, using examples from contemporary science and from the history of the rise of modern science.

6:00-7:30 p.m.

Dinner

Discussion launchers at each dinner table

8:00 p.m.

Free Time

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

8:00-9:00 a.m.

Breakfast

9:00-10:00 a.m.

Worship
Sermon: Rev. Bill Haley

10:15-11:45

Morning Session
Speaker: Dr. Paul Julienne, Fellow
National Institute of Standards and Technology
Topic: Science and Faith in the 21st Century:
Harmony or Conflict

It is important to have a balanced view of the relationship between science and religious faith in order to have informed public debate on issues where these two domains intersect. There is a widespread perception that science and faith are necessarily in conflict with one another. This talk will examine thinking by a number of scientists and others to show that the relationship between science and faith is complex, having more points of contact than commonly appreciated, and in fact can be harmonious.

12:00 – 1:30

Lunch
Speaker/Facilitator: Mark Rodgers
Topic: Integrating Learning with Professional Life

While using anecdotes from his personal career as Chief of Staff, Mark Rodgers will lead a discussion on how the tools and resources provided this weekend can be utilized in one's professional career. He will comment on each session, recognizing the manner by which various sectors of society: global engagement, culture, and science impact and are impacted by one's work in the public square.

Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Hunt:

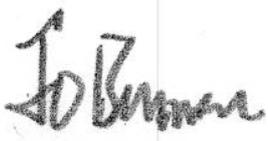

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct hereby approves your proposed trip for you and your spouse to Royal Oak, Maryland scheduled for September 4 to 6, 2009, sponsored by the Faith and Law Project and Fieldstead and Company.

You must complete an Employee Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are required to attach a copy of this letter and the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, including all attachments. You must also include a copy of the Traveler Form completed by you and signed by your employing Member. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $335 from a single source on Schedule VII of that statement.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Zoe Lofgren
Chair
