A Concurrent Resolution applying to the Congress of the United States for the calling of a convention for the limited purpose of addressing concerns raised by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Citizens United v.
Federal Elections Commission and related cases.

WHEREAS, Elections should be free of the corrupting influence of excessive spending by outside interests and fair enough that any citizen can run for public office; and

WHEREAS, Numerous United States Supreme Court decisions have frustrated the will of the American people by eroding our ability to choose our political leadership, write our laws, and determine the fate of our country; and

WHEREAS, The New Jersey General Assembly and the New Jersey State Senate passed Assembly Resolution No. 86 and Senate Resolution No. 47, respectively, in the 2012-2013 legislative session; and

WHEREAS, Those resolutions expressed the Legislature’s “strong opposition to [the] U.S. Supreme Court decision in Citizens United of the United States to propose amending [the] U.S. Constitution” to overturn that decision; and

WHEREAS, Congress has failed to propose, pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, amendments thereto that would adequately address the concerns expressed in Assembly Resolution No. 86 and Senate Resolution No. 47; and

WHEREAS, Article V of the United States Constitution also requires Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments thereto upon application by two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states; and

WHEREAS, The State of New Jersey believes that there is a great need for a convention to propose amendments to the Constitution to address the concerns raised by citizens opposed to the decision of the Supreme Court in Citizens United and related cases, and believes that such a convention must be limited solely, specifically, and exclusively to addressing those concerns; and

WHEREAS, The State of New Jersey believes that the delegates to such a convention should be selected equally from individuals currently holding State or local office, or selected by election from each Congressional district for the purpose of serving as delegates, though past or present holders of federal elective office should be prohibited from serving as convention delegates, and the State should retain the ability to restrict or expand the power of its dелегаты within the limits noted above; and

WHEREAS, The State of New Jersey intends that this be a continuing application considered together with all other applications calling for a convention currently pending in other state legislatures, and all other passed, pending, and future applications with the aforementioned concerns until two-thirds of the several states have applied for a convention and it is convened by Congress; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of New Jersey (the General Assembly concurring):

1. The Legislature of the State of New Jersey makes application to the Congress of the United States for a convention to be called under Article V of the Constitution of the United States of America for the sole, specific and exclusive purpose of proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that would limit the corrupting influence of money in our political system including overturning the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Citizens United v. Federal Elections
