RESOLUTION NO. 0002

1 A Senate Joint Resolution concerning

Constitutional Convention – Amendment Amendments – Repeal

3 FOR the purpose of repealing and withdrawing certain applications to Congress to call a 4 Constitutional Convention; and urging the legislatures of certain other states to take 5 certain actions; and generally relating to the repeal and withdrawal of certain 6 applications to Congress for a convention to propose amendments to the Constitution 7 of the United States.

8 WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States has been, since its creation in 9 1787, the bulwark of American liberty and strength. It was the first written national 10 Charter to clearly set forth the respective duties and powers of the Chief Executive, the 11 Legislature, and the Judiciary, and is the basis of America's checks and balances system of 12 government, assuring the rule of the majority while protecting the rights of the minority.
13 It provides for the peaceful resolution of our basic political disputes and allows for an 14 orderly succession of political leaders without bloodshed or revolution; and

EXPLANATION:
Underlining indicates amendments to bill.
Strike-out indicates matter stricken by amendment.
Italics indicate opposite chamber/conferece committee amendments.
WHEREAS, Since its ratification, the Constitution has been amended 27 times, each time by the proposal of an amendment by the Congress, often on initial petition by the states and always with subsequent ratification by the requisite number of state legislatures. Despite wrenching debate, political turmoil, and many grave political and economic problems — including the Great Depression — our nation has not had another Constitutional Convention since 1787; and

WHEREAS, The first Convention was called to make corrections in revisions to the Articles of Confederation and decided instead to discard that governmental system altogether and create an entirely new and extremely different one. In recent years, we have heard such diverse proposals as the elimination of portions of the Bill of Rights or granting the President the power to dissolve Congress; and

WHEREAS, Although historical records maintained by the State and the Library of Congress are incomplete and in some instances unclear as to the final disposition of legislation proposed by the General Assembly to initiate a call to Congress for a Constitutional Convention, it is reported that the Maryland General Assembly has passed four several such calls for a Constitutional Convention since the 1930s. These calls include:
(1) House Resolution 1839 (unconfirmed) calling for limitations on the federal taxing power; (2) House Joint Resolution 40 (1864) calling for standards concerning the size and boundaries of congressional districts; (3) Senate Joint Resolution 1 (1965) calling for legislative autonomy concerning the apportionment of State legislative bodies; (4) House Joint Resolution 61 (1972) (4 Senate Resolution 47 (1973) (unconfirmed). a memorial from the Senate of Maryland calling for the allowance of school prayer in public schools; and (4) (5) Senate Joint Resolution 4 (1975) calling for a balanced federal budget. It is generally believed that these calls never expire, and current generations are now bound by decisions made in a different time and culture. The need to advance these various policy reforms should be debated anew, and not bind future generations without any consideration; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That this body does hereby rescind, repeal, cancel, void, nullify, and supersede, to the same effect as if they had never been passed, any and all prior applications by the General Assembly to the Congress of the United States of America to call a convention to propose amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, whether or not the calls are confirmed by the historical records maintained by the State or the Library of Congress, pursuant to the terms of Article V thereof, regardless of when and regardless of whether such applications were for a more limited convention to propose one or more amendments regarding one or more specific subjects and purposes or for a general convention to propose an unlimited number of amendments upon an unlimited number of subjects; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the General Assembly urges the legislatures of each and every state which has applied to Congress to call a convention for either a general or limited Constitutional Convention to repeal and withdraw such applications; and be it further
