

Offices of the Seventh Congressional District of Arizona to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

March 13, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Raúl M. Grijalva will continue to serve the people of the Seventh Congressional District of Arizona under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Grijalva passed away on March 13, 2025.

Staff members of Representative Grijalva remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation, and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Arizona district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the fourth vacancy to occur during the 119th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 118th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1203 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2435. Mail addressed to the Seventh Congressional District of Arizona will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 146 North State Avenue, Somerton, AZ 85350 (mailing address: PO Box 4105, Somerton, AZ 85350), telephone (928) 343-7933; and 101 West Irvington Road, Building 4, Tucson, AZ 85714, telephone (520) 622-6788. Staff maintain a virtual office in Tolleson, telephone (623) 536-3388. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
