

Offices of the First Congressional District of California to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

January 6, 2026

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district office of former Representative Doug LaMalfa will continue to serve the people of the First Congressional District of California under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative LaMalfa passed away on January 6, 2026.

Staff members of Representative LaMalfa remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation, and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the California district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the ninth vacancy to occur during the 119th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 118th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 408 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-3076. Mail addressed to the First Congressional District of California will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 120 Independence Circle, Suite B, Chico, CA 95973, telephone (530) 343-1000; 2885 Churn Creek Road, Suite C, Redding, CA 96002, telephone (530) 223-5898; and 1585 Butte House Road, Suite D, Yuba City, CA 95993, telephone (530) 645-6225.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
