

Offices of the Twentieth Congressional District of California to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

January 3, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Kevin McCarthy will continue to serve the people of the Twentieth Congressional District of California under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative McCarthy resigned on December 31, 2023.

Staff members of Representative McCarthy remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Acting Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the California district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the fifth vacancy to occur during the 118th Congress. Nineteen vacancies occurred in the 117th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2468 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2915. Mail addressed to the Twentieth Congressional District of California will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 2187 Herndon Avenue, Suite 101, Clovis, CA 93611 and 9700 Stockdale Highway, Suite 300 Bakersfield, CA 93311. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
