

Offices of the Fiftieth Congressional District of California to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

January 14, 2020

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Duncan Hunter will continue to serve the people of the Fiftieth Congressional District of California under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Hunter resigned from the 116th Congress on January 13, 2020.

Staff members of Representative Hunter remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the California district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the eighth vacancy to occur during the 116th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 115th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2429 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-5672. Mail addressed to the Office of the Fiftieth Congressional District of California will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system. The district offices are located at 1611 North Magnolia Avenue, Suite 310, El Cajon, CA 92020; and 41000 Main Street, Temecula, CA 92590.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
