

Offices of the Fourth Congressional District of Colorado to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

March 25, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Ken Buck will continue to serve the people of the Fourth Congressional District of Colorado under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Buck resigned from Congress effective March 22, 2024.

Staff members of Representative Buck remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Acting Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Colorado district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the eighth vacancy to occur during the 118th Congress. Nineteen vacancies occurred in the 117th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2455 Rayburn House Office Building Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-4676. Mail addressed to the Fourth Congressional District of Colorado will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 900 Castleton Road, Suite 112, Castleton Road, CO 80109, and 271 South Elm Avenue, Suite 1A, Eaton, CO 80615. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
