

Offices of the Sixth Congressional District of Florida to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

January 20, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Michael Waltz will continue to serve the people of the Sixth Congressional District of Florida under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Waltz resigned January 20, 2025.

Staff members of Representative Waltz remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Florida district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the second vacancy to occur during the 119th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 118th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 244 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2706. Mail addressed to the Sixth Congressional District of Florida will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 31 Lupi Court, Palm Coast, FL 32137, telephone (386) 302-0442, and 120 South Florida Avenue, DeLand, FL 32720, telephone (386) 279-0707. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
