

Office of the Second Congressional District of Indiana to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

August 12, 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Jackie Walorski will continue to serve the people of the Second Congressional District of Indiana under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Walorski passed away on August 3, 2022.

Staff members of Representative Walorski remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the Indiana district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the sixteenth vacancy to occur during the 117th Congress. Thirteen vacancies occurred in the 116th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 466 Cannon Building Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-3915. Mail addressed to the Second Congressional District of Indiana will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 2410 Grape Road, Suite 2A, Mishawaka, IN 46545 and 709 Main Street, Rochester, IN 46975. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
