

Offices of the Eleventh Congressional District of New Jersey to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

November 20, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Mikie Sherrill will continue to serve the people of the Eleventh Congressional District of New Jersey under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Sherrill resigned on November 20, 2025.

Staff members of Representative Sherrill remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation, and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the New Jersey district office are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the seventh vacancy to occur during the 119th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 118th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1427 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-5034. Mail addressed to the Eleventh Congressional District of New Jersey will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district office is located at 357 South Livingston Avenue, Suite 201, Livingston, NJ 07039, telephone (973) 526-5668.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
