

Office of the Nineteenth Congressional District of New York to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

May 26, 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Antonio Delgado will continue to serve the people of the Nineteenth Congressional District of New York under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Delgado resigned on May 25, 2022.

Staff members of Representative Delgado remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the New York district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the fourteenth vacancy to occur during the 117th Congress. Thirteen vacancies occurred in the 116th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1007 Longworth Building Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-5614. Mail addressed to the Nineteenth Congressional District of New York will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 189 Main Street #500, Oneonta, NY 13820; 111 Main Street, Delhi, NY 13753; 420 Warren Street, Hudson, NY 12534; 256 Clinton Avenue, Kingston, NY 12401; and 59 North Main Street #301, Liberty, NY 12754. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
