May 11, 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Tom Reed will continue to serve the people of the Twenty-Third Congressional District of New York under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Reed resigned on May 10, 2022.

Staff members of Representative Reed remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the New York district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the thirteenth vacancy to occur during the 117th Congress. Thirteen vacancies occurred in the 116th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1203 Longworth Building Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-3161. Mail addressed to the Twenty-Third Congressional District of New York will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 89 W. Market Street, Corning, NY 14830; 433 Exchange Street, Geneva, NY 14456; 2 East 2nd Street, Suite 208, Jamestown, NY 14701; and 1 Bluebird Square, Olean, NY 14760. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
