

Offices of the Sixth Congressional District of Ohio to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

January 21, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Bill Johnson will continue to serve the people of the Sixth Congressional District of Ohio under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Johnson resigned on January 21, 2024.

Staff members of Representative Johnson remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Acting Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Ohio district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the sixth vacancy to occur during the 118th Congress. Nineteen vacancies occurred in the 117th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2082 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-5705. Mail addressed to the Sixth Congressional District of Ohio will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 4137 Boardman-Canfield Road, Suite 106, Canfield, OH 44406 and 246 Front Street, Marietta, OH 45750. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
