

Office of the Fifteenth Congressional District of Ohio to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

May 17, 2021

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Steve Stivers will continue to serve the people of the Fifteenth Congressional District of Ohio under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Stivers resigned on May 16, 2021.

Staff members of Representative Stivers remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the Ohio district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the eighth vacancy to occur during the 117th Congress. Thirteen vacancies occurred in the 116th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2234 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2015. Mail addressed to the Office of the Fifteenth Congressional District of Ohio will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 3790 Municipal Way, Hilliard, OH 43026; 104 East Main Street, Lancaster, OH 43130; and 69 N. South Street, Wilmington, OH 45177.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
