

Offices of the Seventh Congressional District of Tennessee to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

July 20, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district offices of former Representative Mark E. Green will continue to serve the people of the Seventh Congressional District of Tennessee under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Green resigned on July 20, 2025.

Staff members of Representative Green remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation, and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Tennessee district office are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the sixth vacancy to occur during the 119th Congress. Eighteen vacancies occurred in the 118th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 2446 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2811. Mail addressed to the Seventh Congressional District of Tennessee will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 128 North Second Street, Suite 104, Clarksville, TN 37040, telephone (931) 266-4483; 305 Public Square, Suite 212, Franklin, TN 37064, telephone (629) 223-6050; 801 Broadway, Suite C 507, Nashville, TN 37203, telephone (629) 999-4950. Please call to make an appointment.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
