

Office of the Sixth Congressional District of Texas to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

February 8, 2021

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district office of former Representative Ron Wright will continue to serve the people of the Sixth Congressional District of Texas under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Wright passed away on February 7, 2021.

Staff members of Representative Wright remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Clerk of the House is Cheryl L. Johnson.

The Washington, DC, office and the Texas district office are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the fourth vacancy to occur during the 117th Congress. Thirteen vacancies occurred in the 116th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1725 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-2002. Mail addressed to the Office of the Sixth Congressional District of Texas will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district office is located at 5840 West Ronald Reagan Memorial Highway, Suite 115, Arlington, TX 76017.

Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
