

Office of the Second Congressional District of Utah to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

September 19, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district office of former Representative Chris Stewart will continue to serve the people of the Second Congressional District of Utah under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Stewart resigned on September 15, 2023.

Staff members of Representative Stewart remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation, and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Acting Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, office and the Utah district office are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the third vacancy to occur during the 118th Congress. Nineteen vacancies occurred in the 117th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 166 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-9730. Mail addressed to the Second Congressional District of Utah will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district offices are located at 585 West 500, South #230, Bountiful, UT 84010 and 253 West St. George Boulevard, Suite 100, St. George, UT 84770. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
