

Offices of the Eighth Congressional District of Wisconsin to Remain Open to Serve and Assist Constituents

April 25, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

Washington, DC—The Washington, DC, office and the district office of former Representative Mike Gallagher will continue to serve the people of the Eighth Congressional District of Wisconsin under the supervision of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Representative Gallagher resigned from Congress effective April 25, 2024.

Staff members of Representative Gallagher remain on the House payroll under the supervision of the Clerk of the House to receive and undertake constituent casework, to help in handling business with the departments of the executive branch of the government, to provide general status information on pending legislation and to offer other general constituent services provided by House offices. The Acting Clerk of the House is Kevin F. McCumber.

The Washington, DC, and Wisconsin district offices are presently open on a daily basis to accommodate congressional business. Under House Rules, the Clerk manages the offices when a Member dies, resigns, or is expelled. This authority, which does not include voting representation, continues until a successor is elected to fill the vacant seat. This is the tenth vacancy to occur during the 118th Congress. Nineteen vacancies occurred in the 117th Congress.

The Washington office is located in 1211 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, telephone (202) 225-5665. Mail addressed to the Eighth Congressional District of Wisconsin will be delivered through the internal House mail distribution system.

The district office is located at 1702 Scheuring Road, Suite B, De Pere, WI 54115. Requests for further details should be directed to the Office of the Clerk (202) 225-7000.
